

Verb Agreement with Compound Subjects

A. Directions: Rewrite each sentence in the space provided. Correct any error in subject-verb agreement. If a sentence is correct as it stands, write C.

1. The poles and the equator is regions with special weather conditions.

---

2. A short summer and a long winter occurs at the North and South Poles.

---

3. Either daylight or twilight is present all the time in summer.

---

4. Extremely cold temperatures and darkness prevail during the entire winter.

---

5. Neither the long winter months nor the brief summer appeal to me!

---

B. Directions: Rewrite the paragraph, reversing the order in ALL five compound subjects. Correct the subject-verb agreement as you revise.

SPORTS THROUGH THE YEAR

(6.) Either soccer or field hockey is an exciting fall sport. (7.) Basketball games and wrestling matches are usually held in winter. (8.) Neither Patsy nor her twin brothers have much free time during the spring. (9.) That is because the number-one singles player and captain on the tennis team is none other than Patsy. (10.) In addition, either Patsy or the twins star on the baseball team.

---

---

---

---

---

---